M: Well even…and I know this sound kind of funny, but even if the library just had and option where, for every book, readers could make comments, and…

J: Yeah!

M: …and you could have reader comments…

J: The same sort of adding in…

M: …right…

J: imput from the outside world…

M: …because that way you wouldn't necessarily be expending library resources.

J: …yeah…

M: I know a lot of times, if I read a really good book, I want to be able…have some forum where I can recommend it.

J: …yeah…

M: You don't have to necessarily use a star system or anything, that's kind of goofy, but at least if someone could…if a reader could say, "Hey, this book really helped me out…I was doing a project on this and it had a lot of pertinent information…

J: Right…

M: …if you're interested in this you should definitely check this title out…
